

Summer, 2014 Edition

FOSL Mission Statement

We are a non-profit organization with the mission of acting as a bridge to the community by:

- A. Increasing public awareness of, focusing attention on, and expanding the use of the library as a major resource for an informed community;
- B. Initiating, organizing, promoting and encouraging cultural and educational activities;
- C. Stimulating gifts and endowments for the library as well as fund-raising in support of library and FOSL activities, and;
- D. Working with the Library Board of Trustees, the Library Director, and the Library Manager in a spirit of mutual cooperation.

Book Sale News

The May book sale was quite successful. FOSL offered a wide selection of books, CDs, DVDs, and a few VHS tapes. Twenty-six FOSL members helped out at the sale. A big thank you to each of you! Remember, book sale volunteers receive half-off of all their purchases. Please watch our web page and the Summerville Journal Scene for the next sale in September, 2014.

Mark your calendar!

Mary Alice Munroe joins us in the Westvaco Room on Saturday, June 14, 2014 from 2 pm to 4 pm. Tickets are $25. A copy of Ms. Munroe's current book, Summer Wind, is included with your ticket. Light refreshments will be served.

Notes of Interest

The Library's new website is up and running. Check it out at <http://www.dcl.lib.sc.us/>

Read-to-Me Listener's Club

(Information brought to you directly from the Library's new website!)

"For children under 3 years old. Parents or caregivers receive a printout of fun activities to complete with their listener. Prizes are given based on the number of activities a child completes. Completing all 21 activities enters the child in the Grand Prize drawing at the end of the summer."

Please join us at the General Membership meetings on June 10, July 8, and August 12 in the Westvaco Room of the Library at 7:00 pm. Help FOSL help YOUR Library.

LIVES CHANGE @ YOUR LIBRARY

"The richest person in the world - in fact all the riches in the world - couldn't provide you with anything like the endless, incredible loot available at your local library." ~Malcolm Forbes
